Sherbstuff

>Grew up on Bridle Path

>DS, class of 1975

>Favorite Teacher: "MRS LOMBARDO. She walks into English class our first day with such positive energy takes out a dr. bag (or did I dream this part) and says something about identity "I am a Doctor" but who am I really. The "I" vs the nebulous "they" and all that kind of deeper discussion. I was hooked. She is an exceptional teacher."

>Memory Tidbit: "Wow, there's a million. I have to say that I LOVED high school as well as jr. high. There were so many exceptional people that went to school and Dover-Sherborn and many of us had the time of our lives. It was the seventies, so that kind of sums it up. I'd say one of the more memorable times was our frequent climbs to the cat walks above the theatre for nefarious purposes."
